

BOARD OF POLICE—

CHAP. SEC.

jury, and if court neglect, State's attorney to do so, failure of either or both declared to be acts of criminal misbehavior in office,	9	22
Any judge that shall wilfully neglect or decline to exercise the powers conferred upon him, for preserving the peace and securing the tranquility and freedom of elections, and safety of voters, &c., shall be fined $500 to be recovered by the said, in the name of the State,	"	23
Penalty upon judges for wilfully and knowingly refusing a legal, or receiving an illegal vote, or combine with any person to violate this article or any other law, or the Constitution, touching elections,	"	24
Penalty for preventing, hindering, or attempting to conspire to prevent or hinder any voter from the right of suffrage, by threat, violence intimidation, or other unlawful means, or imprison any person with a view of causing such person to vote illegally, or against their will or under compulsion,	"	25
Offering to vote in more than one precinct, or more than once in the same precinct, to be deemed illegal within the meaning of this article, and subject to all the penalties for illegal voting,	"	25
Punishment for combining to obstruct voters or in any manner interfere with the peace and quiet of election, or with the officers conducting such election,	"	26
If, believe that there is any deposit of arms near any place of voting, to be used to interfere with freedom of election, or to intimidate voters, they shall apply to the Criminal Court or some justice of the peace for a warrant, and search such depository,		